Babies of Homelessness announces the resignation of Brittan Stockert, Executive Director

KING AND SNOHOMISH COUNTIES -- Our Executive Director, Brittan Stockert, is leaving Babies of Homelessness (BoH) on August 30. She is departing to take on an exciting new position as ED at Construction for Change <https://www.constructionforchange.org>. Brittan has been a driving force for BoH since its inception, helping us gain nonprofit status and leading our organization to become a constant in our families' lives. We are delivering more than 30K diapers a month which has helped 9,000 children! We appreciate her hard work and enthusiasm for all things Babies of Homelessness.

"Britt, I have loved working with you and getting to know you. You are a wonderful, caring, and inspirational soul. I have learned so much from you, and I appreciate you. Thank you! You will be greatly missed. I wish you the best in your next chapter ❤️," said Rosa Elings, Field Ops Manager.

"It has been one of my greatest pleasures to work with Britt, first as a volunteer, then as a board member, and most recently as a colleague. I have a tremendous amount of admiration and respect for her passion for helping others and her knowledge of the nonprofit world. The impact she has had on BoH, and the community are immeasurable. I am so thankful for the opportunity to work with such a dedicated, intelligent, caring, and forward-thinking leader," said Katie Forrest, Interim Executive Director.

"I enjoyed my six years since the organization's founding, watching this organization grow into a fully functioning operation—three programs, two counties, full-time staff, five contractors, a growing board with term limits, and dedicated volunteers. I learned so much in this role that will help me in my future endeavors with leadership and board engagement. Thank you for teaching me how to thrive in fast-moving situations with never-ending challenges and opportunities. I am so grateful for your support," said Brittan Stockert.

The BoH board is immensely grateful for all Brittan's contributions during her tenure here. She has brought a lot of compassion and expertise to our organization, and we say, "Best wishes on your next venture. We will miss your passion, empathy, and desire to help our community's families and children. We're excited about your next steps!"
